

Meet Your Legislators

District 11 Lawmaker Information

Located in King County

This district includes parts of Seattle (Beacon Hill neighborhood), Skyway, Renton, Tukwila, and Kent.

Senator Bob Hasegawa (D)

Supports early learning but not deeply involved. Would like to see early learning become something every child is entitled to by the constitution, similar to the formal public school system. Concerned about racial equity. Longtime union organizer. Grandfather of 2.

(360)-786-7616

bob.hasegawa@leg.wa.gov
Legislative Building (LEG), 305

Legislative Assistant:

Jenny Chang (jenny.chang@leg.wa.gov)
Natasha Laitila (natasha.laitila@leg.wa.gov)

Committees: Caucus Chair | Business, Financial Services,
Gaming & Trade | Rules | State Government & Elections |
Ways & Means

Questions? Contact CCR Policy & Advocacy
Manager Sarah Brady (brady@childcare.org)

Meet Your Legislators

District 1 Lawmaker Information

Representative David Hackney (D)

Works on issues of housing, the environment and economic recovery. Interested in early learning but not active. Assistant Attorney for the U.S. department of Justice. Professor at UW law school.

(360)-786-7956

david.hackney@leg.wa.gov
O'Brien Building (JLOB), 330

Legislative Assistant:
Leona Wankowski
(leona.wankowski@leg.wa.gov)

Committees: Vice Chair of Capital Budget | Consumer Protection & Business | Transportation

Representative Steve Bergquist (D)

One of the key people on Appropriations shaping the state budget. Has been a champion on raising the reimbursement rates for Working Connections Child Care, and getting more funding for subsidies. Understands early learning pretty well. An elementary school teacher, with two elementary age kids who are in FFN care with their grandfather.

(360)-786-7862

steve.bergquist@leg.wa.gov
Legislative Building (LEG), 438B

Legislative Assistant:
Syd Locke
(syd.locke@leg.wa.gov)

Committees: Vice Chair of Appropriations | Education | Rules

