

Meet Your Legislators

District 36 Lawmaker Information

Legislative District 36:

This King county district encompasses northeastern Seattle neighborhoods including Ballard, Magnolia and Queen Anne.

Senator Noel Frame (D)

One of the biggest champions for progressive tax reform. Worked to pass the Capitol Gains tax that helped pay for the Fair Starts for Kids Act. Has a 1yr old. Was previously n the House and was just elected to the Senate.

(360) 786-7670

noel.frame@leg.wa.gov
Legislative Bulding (LEG), 411

Legislative Assistant:

Lyndea Kelleher
Lyndea.Kelleher@leg.wa.gov

Committees: Vice Chair of Housing | Vice Chair of Business, Financial Services, Gaming & Trade | Human Services & Behavioral Health

Questions? Contact CCR Policy & Advocacy Manager Sarah Brady (brady@childcare.org)

Meet Your Legislators

District 36 Lawmaker Information

Representative Julia Reed (D)

Worked in the Obama administration for the State department and Office of Management and Budget. Worked on issues like the Seattle Promise community college scholarships and youth employment. She is a consultant with businesses, school district, an nonprofits on racial equity, workforce, and economic development. Rides an electric bike.

 (360) 786-7814

 Julia.Reed@leg.wa.gov
O'Brien Building (JLOB), 304

Legislative Assistant:

 Julia Lain
Julia.Lain@leg.wa.gov

Committees: Assistant Majority Whip | Vice Chair of Postsecondary Education & Workforce | Capital Budget | Housing

Representative Liz Berry (D)

Supportive of early learning and pretty active. Tried to pass a bill relating to retirement benefits for child care providers. Focused on labor issues. Champion for a guaranteed basic income pilot project. Has a 6 and 2yr old.

 (360) 786-7860

 Liz.Berry@leg.wa.gov
O'Brien Building (JLOB), 327

Legislative Assistant:

 Natalie Whitesel
Natalie.Whitesel@leg.wa.gov

Committees: Chair of Labor & Workplace Standards | Environment & Energy | Transportation

