

Meet Your Legislators

District 43 Lawmaker Information

Legislative District 43:

This King county district covers parts of Seattle, specifically Downtown Seattle, First Hill, Capitol Hill, South Lake Union, Washington Park, Madison Park, Eastlake, Montlake, Portage Bay, Wallingford, Fremont, the University District (including the UW campus), Green Lake and parts of Phinney Ridge and Ravenna.

Senator Jamie Pedersen (D)

Somewhat supportive of early learning but not active. Background as an attorney. Has three young children (one set of twins) with his husband.

 (360) 786-7628

 jamie.pedersen@leg.wa.gov
Legislative Building (LEG), 309

Legislative Assistant:
 Sam Hendrickson - sam.hendrickson@leg.wa.gov
Mandy Apa - Mandy.Apa@leg.wa.gov

Committees: Floor Leader | Early Learning & K-12
Education | Law & Justice | Rules | Ways & Means

Meet Your Legislators

District 43 Lawmaker Information

Representative Nicole Macri (D)

Major housing and homeless services advocate and one of the main budget writers for the House of Representatives. Deputy Director of Downtown Emergency Services. Understands and supports child care.

(360) 786-7826

nicole.macri@leg.wa.gov
O'Brien Building (JLOB), 336

Legislative Assistant:
Mckaylia Marshall
Mckaylia.Marshall@leg.wa.gov

Committees: Vice Chair of Appropriations | Health Care & Wellness

Representative Frank Chopp (D)

Active in passing the Capital Gains tax that paid for the Fair Starts for Kids Act. Interested in supporting early learning. Was Speaker of the House until 2020. Formerly a community organizer and ED of Solid Ground (social services organization).

(360) 786-7920

frank.chopp@leg.wa.gov
Legislative Building (LEG), 429A

Legislative Assistant:
Jean Balbon
Jean.Balbon@leg.wa.gov

Committees: Appropriations | Finance | Housing

